

Year 3/4 – Ancient Greece – Ancient Athens

Fill in the missing words:

Athens had a hill in the middle named the Acropolis. This hill had important buildings on it, including the Parthenon. This was a beautiful marble temple dedicated to the goddess Athena. Below, there is a central marketplace called the Agora. This is where Athenians liked to talk about politics, socialise and go shopping.

Questions to answer:

1. What were the draped tunics that were worn called? Chitons
2. What foods did the Ancient Greeks eat? A varied diet of fish, grains and olives
3. Who was often sent to do the shopping in Ancient Greece? The slaves