Now let's move onto to a different type of word.
Let's think about adjectives.

Adjectives
An adjective is a word that describes a noun (the name of a thing or a place).
"It was a terrible book."
• The word 'terrible' is an adjective. It tells us what the book (the noun) was like.
"The book she read on holiday was terrible," or "She read a terrible book on holiday."
• Adjectives can come before or after a noun.
• Try putting adjectives in different places in your sentences to make your writing more interesting.
"She had a mouldy, smelly, overpriced sandwich."
• If you want to describe a noun in detail, you can use more than one adjective.
• When you have a list of adjectives like this, separate them with commas.

Highlight the adjectives.
The Yelt is very scary.

As we are year 3 and 4s, we know that:

1-we shouldn't use too many adjectives and we certainly don't need them in every sentence!

The lovely, kind girl was walking down the long, narrow, busy road towards beautiful Cambridge.

NO! Too many adjectives! Stop and think, what is really important to describe to the reader?

2-We also know that often the first adjective we think of isn't the best one.

Take time, pause and think, what is the best adjective I can think of?

The lonely girl walked down the narrow road towards Cambridge.

That's it for today, but if you want to do another 5 minutes, why don't you have a play with nouns and adjectives . . .

Can you think of a noun for each letter of the alphabet? Maybe with an adjective as well?
