If you had forgotten, look at your lesson 1 and 2 work in your Home Learning book to help you.

To identify word types.

nouns	adjectives

You can also go back to lesson 1 and 2 and play the games and quizzes again if you are not ready to move on. Don't worry, do what is right for you.

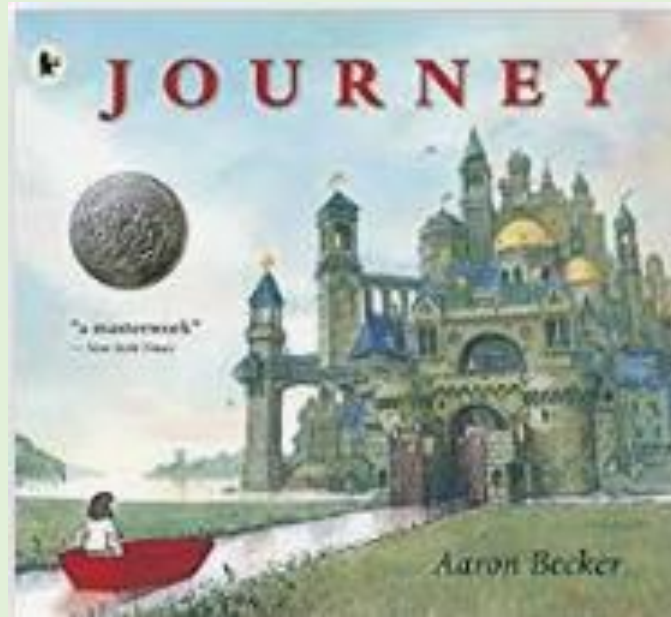

Today we are going to be:

1-describing by using adjectives and adverbs

2-choosing the best nouns and verbs we can.

Do you remember 'The Journey' by Aaron Becker from the beginning of the year?

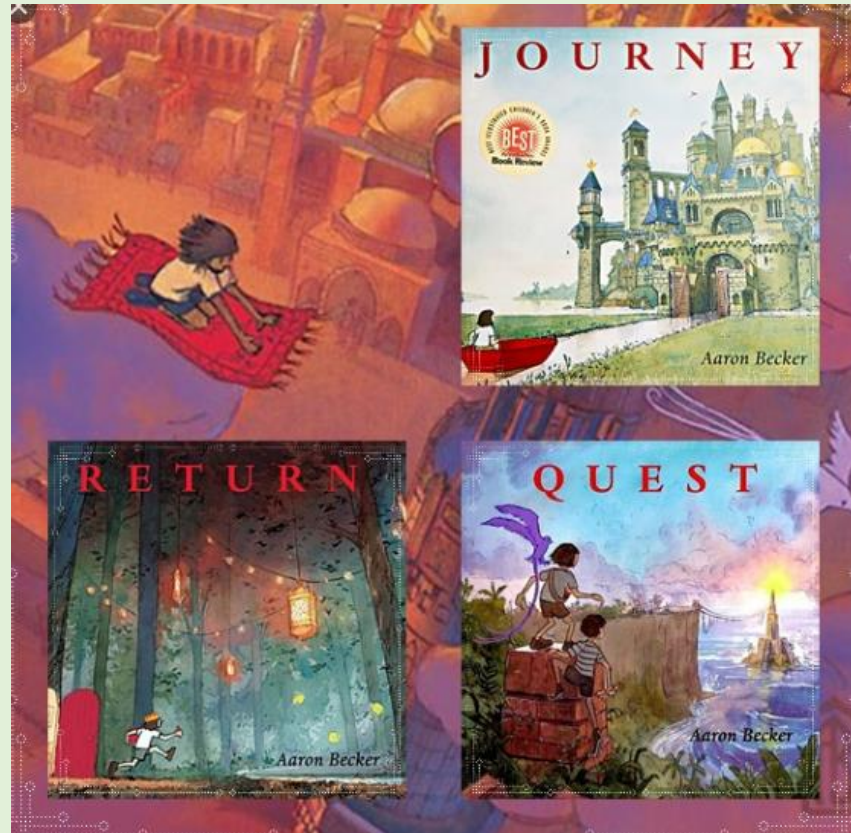

Aaron Becker
USA
46 years old

You can watch the trailer and listen to Aaron Becker again at another time if you want to-

The Journey is actually one of a trilogy, part of a set of three connected books!

So we are going to use some of the illustrations from the other two books in the trilogy to practise our writing.

Take some time to just look at the following illustrations.

Take time to look.

What can you see?

Really look.

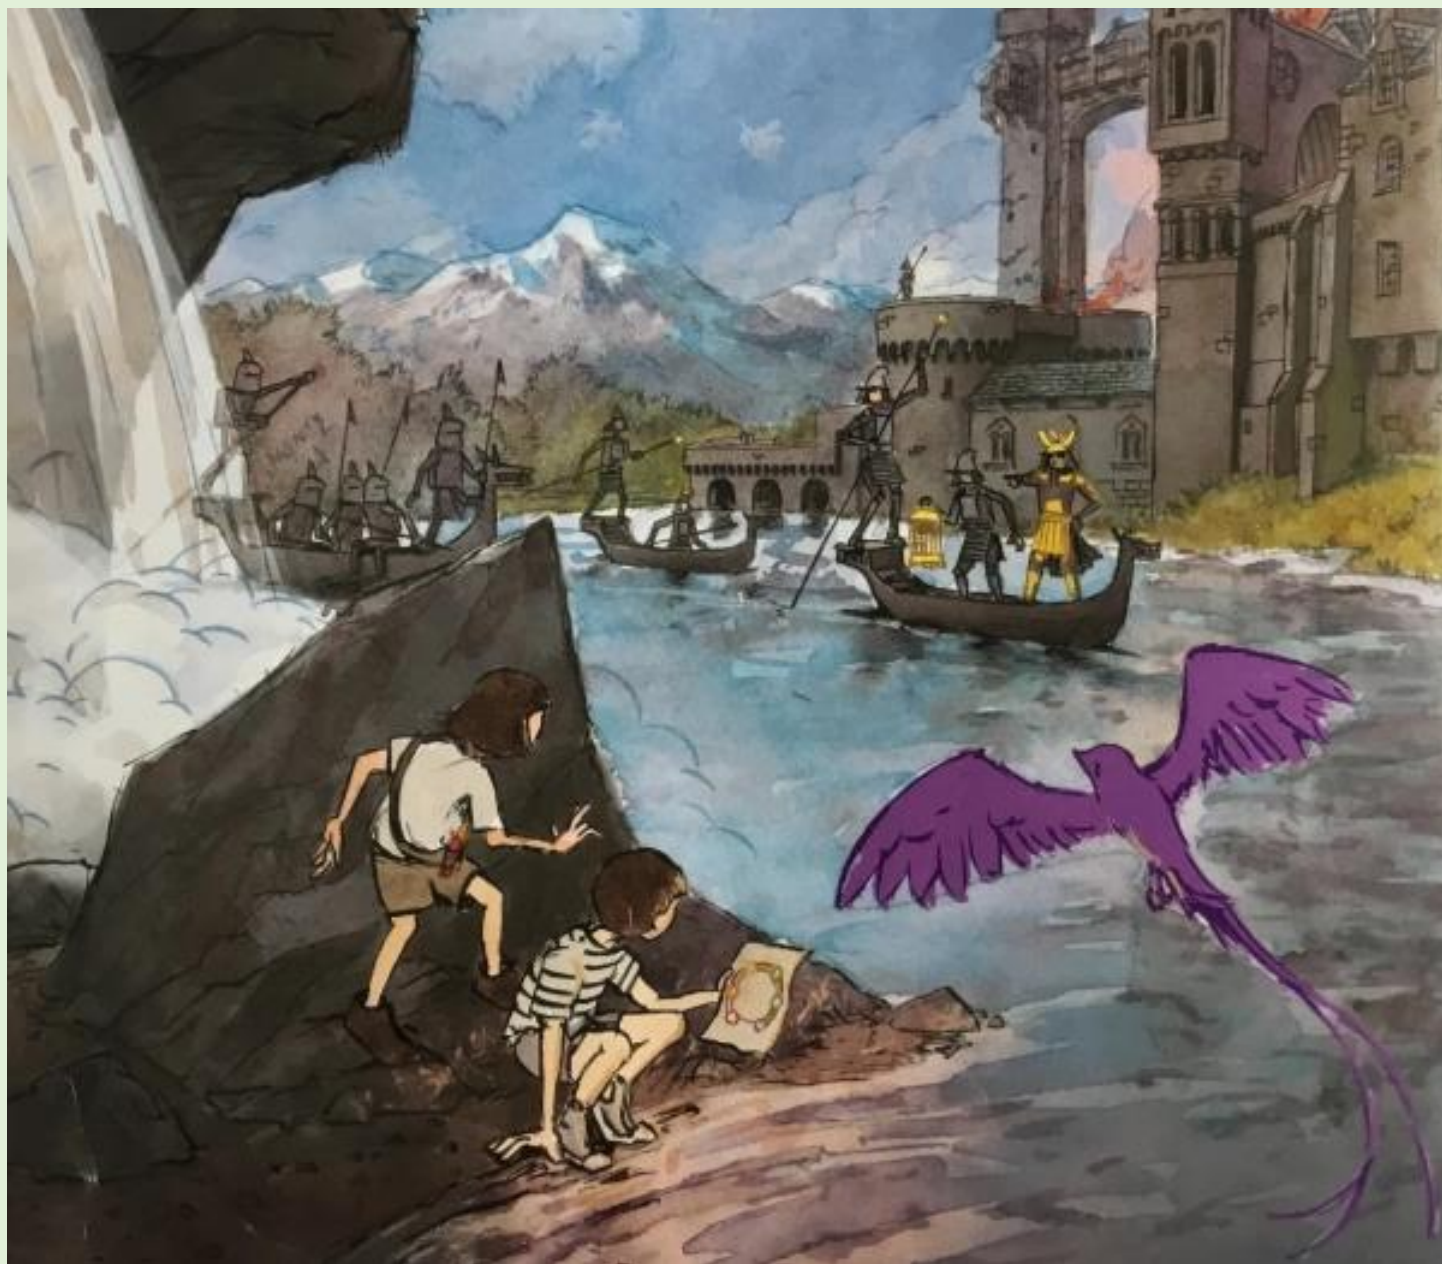

What can you see?

We are going to give you a basic sentence.

You are going to improve it by:

1-describing by using adjectives and adverbs

And for extra challenge-

2-choosing the best nouns and verbs we can.

Let me show you.

Improve the sentence by:

1-describing by using adjectives and adverbs

And for extra challenge-

2-choosing the best nouns and verbs we can.

The children stood watching the men come closer.

IMPROVED SENTENCES

What has been changed?

Silently, the frightened children stood watching the men come closer.

OR

Silently, the frightened children crouched behind a rock, watching the soldiers come closer.

Improve the sentence by:

1-describing by using adjectives and adverbs

And for extra challenge-

2-choosing the best nouns and verbs we can.

Create your own sentence!

That's it for today, but if you want to carry on for longer or write more in your free time, you could watch the trailers for the two other books in the Trilogy and write a snippet of a story or your own version.
