

Mountains Retrieval Quiz ANSWERS

(based on the Knowledge Organiser)

1. What do we call the top of a mountain? Peak or summit
2. True or false.....
Fold mountains occur when magma is forced up from the crust of the earth and this magma creates a dome. False – fold mountains are formed when tectonic plates collide.
3. The arrangement of the natural and artificial physical features of an area is called the topography.
4. What is the name given to the bottom of a mountain? Base or foot
5. True or false.....
Volcanic mountains are made up of layers of cooled lava and ash. True
6. Mountains cover approximately how much of the surface of the earth? One fifth
7. Where is the longest mountain range on the planet? In the Atlantic Ocean
8. In which mountain range would you find Mount Everest? The Himalayas
9. When you ascend a mountain, are you climbing up or down?
You would be climbing up!