

Read the words on the letters. If you read a word that has the split i-e sound in, please cut it out and place it in an envelope for the postman!

An illustration of an envelope with a tan background and a decorative border of alternating red and blue diagonal stripes. Two white rectangular areas with wavy lines below them represent postage stamps. The word "glide" is written in a black, rounded, lowercase font in the upper white area.

glide

goat

The image features two envelopes stacked vertically. Each envelope is light brown with a decorative border of alternating red and blue diagonal stripes. In the top right corner of each envelope, there is a white rectangular area with a scalloped edge and three wavy lines below it, representing a postage stamp. The word "slide" is written in a large, black, sans-serif font in the center of the top envelope.

slide

bright