Lesson 2

Look at these situations in the table below. Some boxes have been filled in to help you. You will need to look at what the person is doing and think about how the person is feeling, what you might want to do and what you should actually do.

What the person is doing	How the person is feeling	What I want to do	What I should do
Alicia (Emily's sister) is studying for a test. She keeps hearing knocks at the door.	Stressed	Knock on her door and chat with her.	Leave her alone to study.
Dad is rushing around and has spilt some coffee on the table.	In a rush	Sit and eat my breakfast.
A little girl has just fallen into a puddle in a rush to get onto the school bus.	Upset	Get on the bus and sit down.
My friend has dropped her yoghurt and it has gone all over the floor.
You're very hungry but mum is on the phone talking to her friend.
You want to play a certain game but all your friends are playing hide and seek.
